

BOLD OUTLAWS ARE IN TOILS AT LAST

Desperadoes Defied Arrest Long Time, but Were Captured by Posses.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ARVONIA, VA., August 1.—Reeling five constables, all heavily armed, and four desperate men, with hands tied with ropes and legs chained together and locked with padlocks, a wagon at dusk last night drew out from the center of the town, where a large crowd of people had gathered. The destination of the wagon was the Buckingham jail, and the prisoners were Ben Zimmerman, Arthur Zimmerman, Willie Thomas, and Charles Thomas, four of the boldest outlaws and most desperate characters ever known in this county.

All four were captured by a posse yesterday morning and were brought before Justice of the Peace C. Livingston Pierce in the afternoon. They were tried before a big crowd of people, white and black, and were found guilty and sent on to the grand jury.

The immediate charge against the men was housebreaking, but all have other charges hanging over their heads. On Monday night the four men and one Bob Gregory, who claims to have entered the gang in order to report on them, went to the home of Mrs. Willie Ambler, at the noted Seven Islands mansion. It is alleged that the men stole a large number of old country hams and middlings. Gregory reported the theft and warrants were issued. A strong posse went from here to the headquarters of the gang, between the James and the State Rivers, and captured them. The leader was lying upon a bed with a double-barreled shotgun at his head, and in his pockets were two revolvers. He was surprised and disarmed. Most of the meat was found in his room. The other three men were similarly caught.

The outlaws are said to have kept a blind tiger across Bumpass's Bridge. In a secluded spot, where they have been operating for about three years. All kinds of misdemeanors and crimes have been charged up to them, but they were so bold that it was generally understood everybody was afraid to attempt to arrest them.

WORK OF CHURCHES.

Encouraging Reports Submitted at Meeting of Baptist Association.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEW CANTON, VA., August 1.—At the session of the James River Baptist Association, at Tilden, which important business was transacted. Notwithstanding the heavy showers which fell every day, the attendance was large. The reports in the main were encouraging, as indicative of general progress on the part of the churches. Every pastor in the association was present when the body was called to order, and every church sent up its letter containing a statement of the year's work. Though there was a slight falling off in the mission contributions, yet the total of the contributions for all purposes goes considerably beyond that of any previous year.

Among the addresses made were those of the Rev. Dr. George W. McDaniel, of Richmond, on Sunday school work; William Elyson, Esq., of Richmond, on State mission work, and President Boatwright of Richmond College, on education.

The next session of the Association will be held with the Cartersville Baptist Church. The Rev. R. W. Bagwell is to preach the introductory sermon.

MANY WENT THIRSTY.

Money from Dry Towns to Whiskey Dealers Never Got There.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., August 1.—Ben T. Mitchell, the special delivery carrier of the post office, who was arrested yesterday, charged with stealing letters containing money, had a hearing to-day, and was sent on to the grand jury. It was said that he had taken principally letters sent from local option districts to liquor dealers of the city. One dealer testified that over 100 letters, containing money, had gone astray.

CREAMERY AT STAUNTON.

Farmers Hold Big Meeting and Organize for Work.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STAUNTON, VA., August 1.—Farmers of this section are planning to start a large creamery here, the only one in the State at present being at Blacksburg in connection with the Agricultural and Mechanical College. A large meeting of farmers was addressed here to-day by Dr. P. B. Barringer, president of Virginia Polytechnic Institute; Professor B. D. White, of the Department of Agriculture, Washington; Professor W. H. Brainerd, of the Virginia

MORE SCHOOLS: BETTER ROADS

Levy Raised in Dinwiddie County—Petersburg Pythians Off for Big Meeting.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., August 1.—Petersburg Company, No. 18, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, Captain George Bowman, commanding, left this afternoon for Boston, going via Norfolk, and thence by steamship to New York. The company formed a part of the first regiment of the military branch of the order, of which Colonel William H. Wilcox, of this city, is the commanding officer. The Petersburg company carried twenty or more men in the ranks, and will be joined at Norfolk by other companies of the regiment. Uniformed Pythians from all the States will gather in encampment next week at Boston, in honor of the supreme lodge of the order in the United States, which assembles there in biennial session. The parade and maneuvers of the uniform regiments are always an interesting feature of these biennial sessions of the supreme lodge, and the award of valuable prizes to the best drilled company excites keen rivalry.

Taxes in Dinwiddie County.
At the recent meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Dinwiddie, the school tax levy was raised 10 cents, making the levy this year 20 cents on the $100 of taxable values; the road levy was increased from 10 cents to 20 cents, and the levy for county taxes was reduced from 10 cents to 20 cents, making the total levy for all purposes 40 cents on the $100 of values. The increase of the school and road levies insures the building of new high schools and better educational facilities generally in the county, and the improvement of the public roads, and movement in which the people are just now greatly interested. They have an example of what can be done in this respect in the fine road now being built by convict labor from Petersburg out to the county courthouse, several miles of which have been completed. Dinwiddie has about 100 miles of public roads, most of which, in the course of time, will be improved.

A Valuable Institution.

The Petersburg Benevolent Mechanic Association, of which Mr. Hugh R. Smith is the president and Mr. William H. Baxter is the secretary and treasurer, has one of the most valuable libraries and complete museums in the State. Its library numbers nearly 11,000 volumes, historical, scientific, biographical, mechanical and general, while its museum includes a large and varied collection of relics and curios. The association was incorporated in 1826, and it has been in continued and successful operation ever since, growing in popularity each year.

It owns a fine property at the corner of Sycamore and Tabb Streets, under which are located several handsome stores. The main floor contains the library and museum, with galleries in a spacious and handsomely fitted hall, the reading room supplied with all the magazines and prominent newspapers of the day, the library room has recently been greatly improved. But it is not in these respects alone that this association has accomplished such great good in the community. It has a charitable side to its work, and in the relief extended to needy and sick members and in the education of the orphan children of its deceased members through a long course of years it has expended a large sum of money. Its work has been, and is now truly benevolent, as the name of the association implies.

Personal and News in Brief.

News of the death in Paris, Ky., of the Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford, has been received here with much regret. Dr. Rutherford was formerly, for a period of some years, the pastor of Tabby Street Presbyterian Church in this city, and he was pleasantly remembered by a host of friends. He was an eloquent and forcible preacher, and a gentleman of most courtly manners.

Chief of Police Ragland reports 159 arrests in this city during the month of July, including 60 cases from the grade of murder down to trivial violations of city ordinances. The number of arrests for drunkenness was 46.

The Atlantic Dredging Company, of Philadelphia, which has the government contract for the harbor and of the channel of the river down to deep water. The contract calls for a uniform depth of twelve feet in harbor and river, a depth sufficient to accommodate large crafts. Two dredges are at work, and since the river current has been diverted from point above the harbor into a new channel through Chesterfield, it is not expected that shoals will be formed in future in the harbor and channel.

Miss Mary Vaughan, of Chesterfield county, accompanied by Miss Laura Savage, of Richmond, left this morning for Surry county to spend a month with friends.

Misses Mary Staten and Evelyn Hardy left to-day for Washington to visit relatives and friends.

Clairland Babcock, son and only child of the Rev. J. C. Babcock, pastor of Wesley M. E. Church, has been ill for some days with typhoid fever, but his condition to-day is regarded as improved.

A warrant was sworn out to-day for the arrest of R. E. Burton, a colored physician of Richmond, charging him with assaulting Mr. J. Frank Bond, a collector for the Virginia Passenger and Power Company.

Mr. L. J. McIntosh, State secretary of the Interdenominational Sunday School Association of Virginia, will deliver an address before High Street M. E. Church Sunday school to-morrow.

The Winchester baseball team, which has been in Petersburg three days this week, will remain over to play games on Monday and Tuesday. The Hagerstown (Md.) team will play here the last three days of next week.

EVERYBODY NOW INSANE

Jury's Verdict Promptly Drives Negroes of Suffolk Crazy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SUFFOLK, VA., August 1.—Following the verdict of the jury in the Jarrett murder case, William Taylor, a negro, charged with the shooting and confined in the same jail with Jarrett, has been having a series of fits, and it is possible that he, too, may lead insanity. If the convulsions are simulated, his feigning is clever, and considerable violence is being done to his head against the cell sides.

Frank Jones, colored, arrested to-day for threatening to kill his wife, is pleading insanity, and his case is being investigated by a commission of lunatics.

Times-

FREE!

Dispatch

Are you one of the thousands who are taking advantage of our coupon plan? It is simple and very easy, and it means that you get the best paper in Virginia FREE—no more, no less. If you have not begun to use these coupons start right away. Watch your neighbor—she carries them in her purse when out shopping, and saves a penny here and there. They are just as good as money.

One merchant remarked a day or two ago: "My, but The Times-Dispatch must have an awful big circulation. Nearly every one of my customers are bringing me coupons. Just look what a pile I have. That sure is a good idea."

And it is just so. The merchant has the goods and he is making a bid for your cash—a strictly legitimate bid, too. He says to you: "Spend forty cents with me daily and I will pay for your morning paper." Isn't that fair?

Well, these merchants have agreed to accept these penny coupons, one with every twenty cent purchase, which is in fact paying for the paper of as many customers as choose to come. More the better.

Why, you don't have to spend but 38c a day to get The Times-Dispatch free. Even the poorest spend as much as that. It's the biggest snap you ever saw. It's the only article that you may use and then get your money back. Lots of merchants advertise, "Money back if not satisfactory," but where did you ever see a proposition just like this?

MAY LEAVE BRIDE TO GO TO PRISON

Newly Wed Couple in Deep Waters for Swearing Falsely as to Girl's Age.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ALEXANDRIA, VA., August 1.—A fine of $10, to which was added a sentence of thirty days in jail, was imposed in the Police Court this morning on Charlie Davis, because he gave the age of his newly-made bride, formerly Miss Sarah Jane Norris, as twenty-one years, when it was only seventeen. Following the decision, Attorney B. D. Brumback, counsel for the accused, noted an appeal. Davis thereupon furnished bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance in the Corporation Court.

The complainant against Davis, who is but twenty-one years of age, was the girl's mother, Mrs. Rebecca Sherwood. She told the court that her daughter was seventeen years of age on July 9th last, and that the marriage was without her consent.

of age, when, as a matter of fact, she was only seventeen, the young bride replied: "Because I wanted to." She then said that she loved Charlie and knew she "could not get him any other way besides saying that she was of age." She appeared to be slightly crestfallen when the court pronounced sentence on her husband. She did not, however, leave with him. She was compelled to accompany the irate mother home.

Other Alexandria News.

Lovell Davis, a farmer from Lorton, Fairfax county, Va., was robbed of $1.97 worth of produce this morning from his stand in the city market by James Griffin. Griffin secured the goods at different times during the day and promised to produce the money at 11:30 o'clock. He failed to keep his promise and is now in a cell at police headquarters. He will have a hearing on next Saturday.

George Leigh and brothers, of Louisa county, Va., will, on Tuesday, commence work on the new public school building to be erected by the city for white girls. The building will cost $27,872.

A. J. Wedderburn, secretary of the George Washington Park Association, announces that drawing for lots in the plot of ground which will surround a park on Shooter's Hill, on which a suitable monument will be erected to George Washington, will take place at the opera-house on Tuesday at 3:30 o'clock.

Political Debate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SUFFOLK, VA., August 1.—A joint political debate is expected at Isle of Wight Courthouse on Monday between Representative Harry L. Maynard and J. Peter Holland, congressional aspirant. Former Congressman William A.

Young may be present and make it triangular.

PRETTY GIRLS IN CARAVANS

Having Good Time Going Through Country in Caravans to the World's Fair.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
LONDON, August 1.—Those suffragettes who are not working for the next by-election are combining business with pleasure by going around the country in caravans, conducting a propaganda. It is no uncommon sight on the country roads to see a large caravan filled with pretty girls, who, while enjoying country life, are also talking to farmers' wives, interesting the women of the outside world in the cause of woman suffrage.

Caravanning is becoming quite popular to spend the summer. Many teachers and other women workers are hiring caravans for this month to travel slowly from place to place. The nights are spent in the caravans, but the days are passed out in the open.
